

ASM CANADA COUNCIL M. BRIAN IVES LECTURESHIP

I. DEFINITION AND HISTORY

Established in 1971 by the Canada Council, ASM International, to identify a distinguished lecturer who will present a technical talk at a regular monthly meeting of each of those Canadian ASM Chapters who elect to participate.

It is ASM's commitment to be inclusive and mindful of diversity in our policies, programs, courses, awards, and interactions with others. As an organization, we affirm and encourage nominations of qualified candidates, within each award's criteria, regardless of their age, culture, ethnic origin, gender, gender identity, marital status, nationality, race, religion, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic status.

II. RULES

A. The Lecturer

- Shall be someone of proven ability in the presentation of interesting and generally intelligible talks of a caliber equal to the best expected of ASM Chapters.
- Must be able to offer a talk (or talks) appropriate to the interests of all participating Chapters.
- Shall be selected by the Canada Council following the receipt of nominations from Canadian Chapters.
- Shall normally be selected, and his or her willingness to accept the award determined, in the month of May.

B. The name of the Lecturer each year is submitted to the Awards Policy Committee and the ASM Board of Trustees for information only.

C. The Lectureship shall carry an honorarium of $1000, financed by the ASM Canada Council, and a plaque, mounted on walnut, to be formally presented at the ASM Leadership Awards Luncheon.

D. In addition, the Canada Council will finance travel expenses and those subsistence expenses incurred by the Lecturer which are not provided by the participating Chapters, as part of its annual operating budget.

E. No candidate shall be selected for an award posthumously.

III. LECTURE

A. Schedule of Talks

- In April each year, Canadian Chapters will indicate their intention to participate and the Canada Council will draw up a schedule for the approval of those Chapters.

B. Topic of Talks

- Topics will be proposed by the Lecturer before July and offered to the participating Chapters either by direct communication between the Lecturer and Chapter, or through an officer of the Canada Council.

C. Local Arrangements

- Will be the sole responsibility of the participating Chapters, including the provision of those facilities required by the Lecturer. The officers of the Canada Council will be prepared to act on behalf of the Lecturer, in accordance with his or her wishes.
